Department of Energy

Reading Room

by Chris Edwards

General Resources

Cato Institute. Cato’s website provides extensive research on energy policy issues.

Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance. The CFDA website has an official listing and description of all federal subsidy programs, including Department of Energy programs.

Congressional Research Service. The CRS issues briefing papers on issues related to the department. CRS studies are available here.

Government Accountability Office. The GAO issues reports on the operations of the department’s programs. You can search for GAO studies here.

U.S. Department of Energy. The department’s website provides information on agencies and programs.

Energy Policy History

Current Energy Policy

