Department of Labor

Reading Room

by Chris Edwards

General Resources

Cato Institute. Cato’s website provides research on labor issues.

Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance. The CFDA website includes a description of all federal subsidy programs, including labor subsidy programs.

Congressional Research Service. CRS briefing papers on current labor issues are available here.

Government Accountability Office. GAO reports on the operations of Department of Labor programs are available here.

U.S. Department of Labor. The department’s website provides information on its activities and programs.

Labor Unions

"Are Unions Good for America?" Cato Journal 30, no. 1 (Winter 2010).

Unemployment Insurance

Employment and Training Programs

Trade Adjustment Assistance

